

Photograph 6: Looking west along Well House Lane
Note ground rising comparatively steeply on left of view, partly concealing Barton Farm ridge, identified by tree belt on skyline; vegetation along south side of Well House Lane is intermittent.

Photograph 7: Looking south-east from Harestock Road/Andover Road junction
Note developing vegetation on east side of Andover Road and in central reservation.
Barton Farm ridge is clearly defined by tree belt on skyline, closing off views to south.
