City convenience, Surrey surrounds

Whether you're looking to escape the bustle of city life without compromising on convenience, or you want the ideal spot to establish your roots, Brooklands Grove is perfect.

In addition to the exceptional connectivity, excellent schools and idyllic leafy suburbs, Weybridge also offers a vibrant mix of artisan, independent and familiar boutiques, shops and eateries. There is ample parking for easy access to the High Street, or it's a pleasant route to walk or cycle.

Renowned for being family-friendly and relaxed, Weybridge was voted one of the safest Surrey suburbs and fourth in the Muddy Stilettos top 300 best places to live in 2024.

A first class education

The area is renowned for its excellent education, boasting a wide selection of independent schools: some of the most respected in the country. There are numerous early years nurseries, state and private schools nearby too.

St James' and internationally acclaimed St George's primaries are close to home, while Heathside School is within walking distance. Manby Lodge Infant School is also less than a mile from home, where youngsters often study before moving on to Cleves Junior School. For older students, Brooklands College offers a comprehensive range of apprenticeships, as well as higher and adult education courses.

Places to go

Eating out – The Waverley Inn pub is just a short walk from Brooklands Grove. Weybridge town centre is also home to a wonderful variety of restaurants, including the Queen’s Head, a popular and highly-rated, family-friendly pub set in a Grade II listed coach house. You can go Italian at Osso Buco, or at the Valentina Italian Restaurant, Bar & Kitchen, or even sample some tasty tapas at El Meson De Los Hermanos. Want an al fresco lunch? The Minnow pub will be the perfect place after a walk along the towpath.

Sports and leisure – With a David Lloyd, Bannatyne Health Club and Spa, and several golf courses, including St George’s Hill, Burhill and Silvermere golf clubs located nearby, you won’t have to travel far for a daily dose of exercise. With water forming a major part of the town’s identity, there are also numerous rowing clubs nearby, while horse-racing fans can head to courses at Sandown, Ascot, Kempton, and Epsom. Or if tennis is more your thing, St George’s Hill Lawn Tennis Club is only a short drive away.

History and heritage – There are a number of fascinating heritage trails and guided walks to enjoy. Take a trip to Brooklands Museum and you can even climb aboard a Concorde. Petrolheads can take in the area’s motoring history at the London Bus Museum and Mercedes-Benz World. Or why not tour the historic home of Henry VIII and explore some 60 acres of picturesque gardens at Hampton Court Palace?

Parks and nature – In addition to your own beautiful grounds, cycleways and green open spaces, there are wonderful places to visit to connect with the River Wey and Thames, which are perfect for gentle riverbank walks. For younger family members there's also much to explore at Churchfields playground.

Entertainment – Film fans won't have far to go to see the latest blockbusters with the Everyman cinema in Walton on Thames less than a 5-mile drive. It doesn't stop there though, Addlestone's popular arts centre also hosts a variety of events, including live music sessions, quiz nights and even a crochet club.

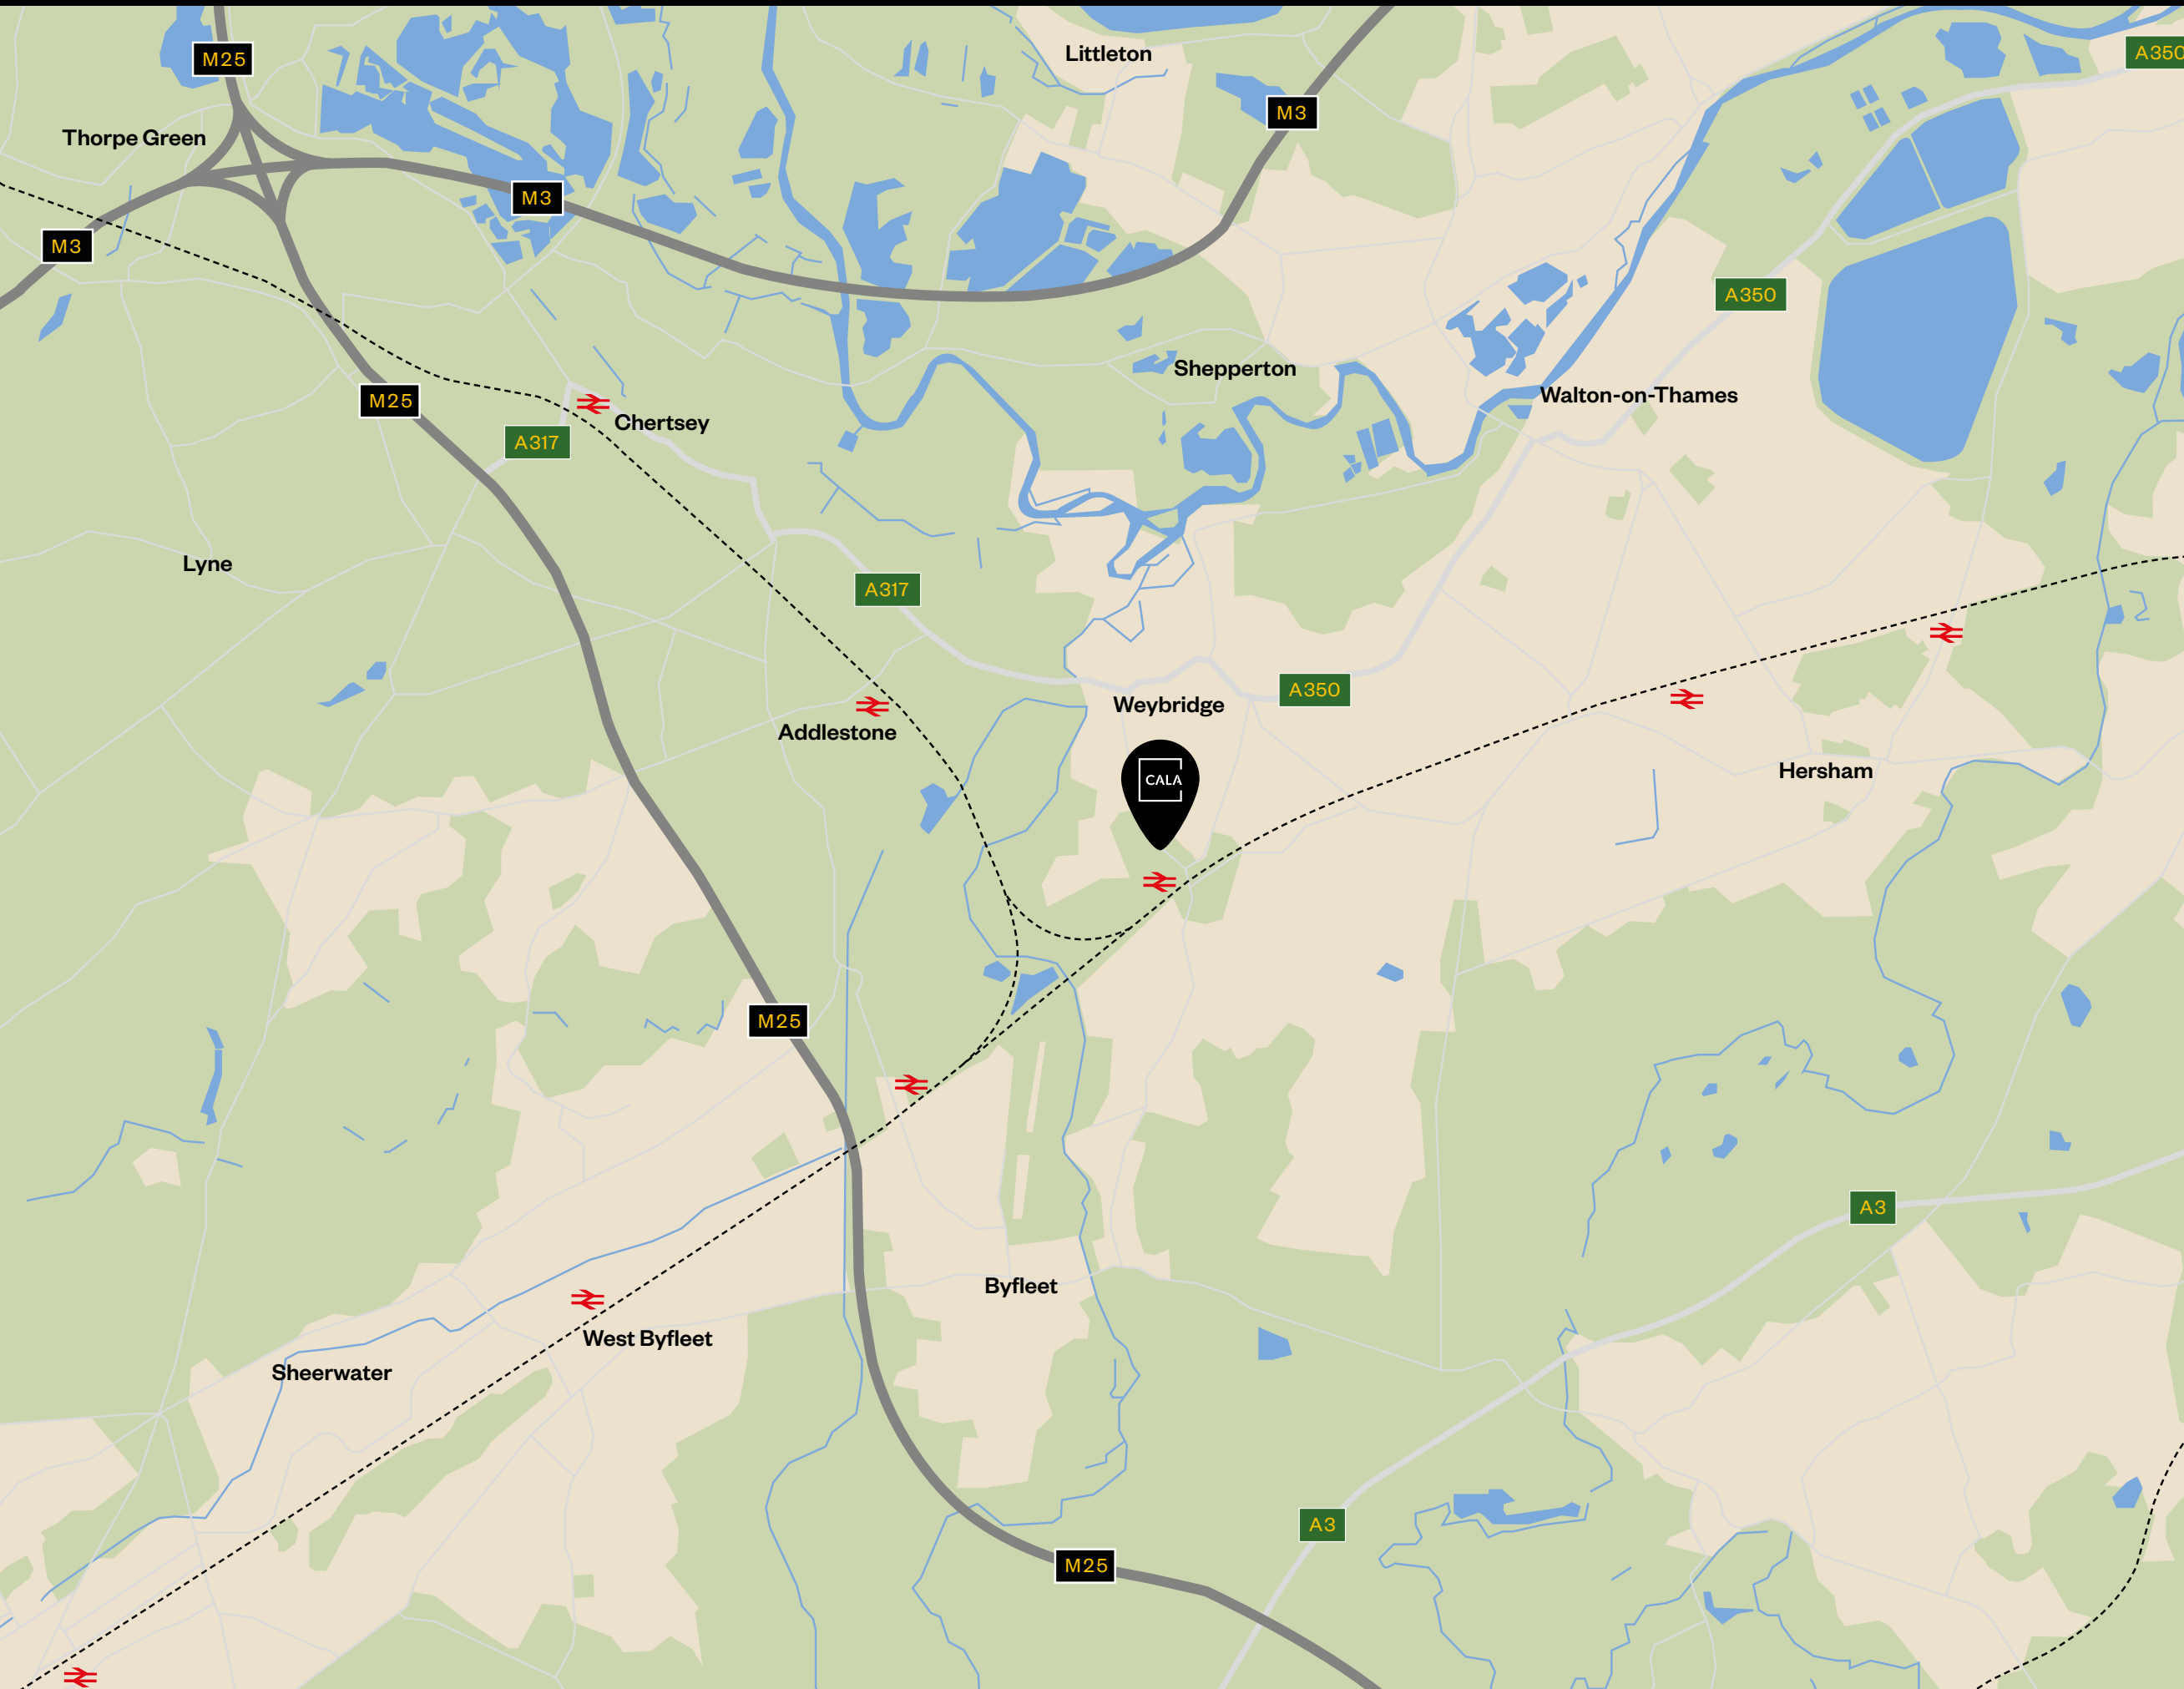

Shopping – Weybridge caters for all your day-to-day needs with its wealth of independent retailers and well-known names, such as Waitrose and Neptune, a family-run butcher and an artisan deli. If you fancy venturing further afield there are shopping centres and quaint quirky streets to explore in nearby Walton on Thames, Kingston, Esher, and Richmond.

Family days out – For fun, fitness and adventure, The Oakwood will have the whole family covered. With its dry ski slopes, high ropes adventure course, Laser Tag, gym and fitness classes, the former Sandown Sports Club has much to offer.

There is so much to see and do in the area, and Brooklands Grove sits within the heart of it all.

What our customers say

Internal photography from a previous Cala development

“ We wanted a new build. Our previous house needed substantial work doing over the time we were living there and always felt like an ongoing process, so we wanted to leave that behind and find somewhere new, homely and ready.

Our Cala Home was perfect. We lifted and shifted our furniture in and we were ready to start living. Being able to choose finishes in areas like the bathroom and kitchen from the outset meant that we felt like we were moving into a new build with our own style.”
