

Roseberry Wynd

Phase 1

South Queensferry

An ideal setting to make your home

Situated less than 2 miles from the iconic Forth Road Bridge, minutes from the M90 for the spectacular Queensferry Crossing, and with plenty of walks and cycle networks close by, Rosebery Wynd is as attractive as it is well connected. With the centre of scenic Queensferry just a short distance away, and the culturally rich capital around half an hour away in the car, this exciting new development will suit first time buyers, families and downsizers alike.

Designed to meet your needs

Rosebery Wynd is part of a new community being created in South Queensferry. It offers a wide range of apartments and houses designed to suit buyers of all kinds. These stylish new homes all offer a similar level of flexibility, with living spaces that will adapt to your needs as and when they change.

A sight to behold

Offering a distinct character of its own, yet little more than a 30 minute drive or 15 minute train journey from Edinburgh, South Queensferry is beautifully well located. Enjoy a stroll through the town centre and you'll find a wide range of shops, bars and restaurants, with the many attractive buildings in pastel colours giving the area its unique feel and charm. You can also visit the different islands found throughout the Forth on one of the regular boat trips.

Life's a breeze here

South Queensferry is perhaps best known for its proximity to the famous Forth Bridges and Queensferry crossing (the Maid of the Forth provides sightseeing cruises offering spectacular views of all three). The journey also takes in Inchcolm Island, where the local wildlife includes seals and puffins. Those who enjoy water sports and sailing will also want to visit Port Edgar Marina, home to one of Scotland's largest sailing schools.

See the sights

Dating back to 1662, Dalmeny House & Estate offers striking architecture and walks through scenic parkland, and is well worth a visit.

Hopetoun House meanwhile, has been described as one of Scotland's finest stately homes, with 6,500 acres of grounds to explore, and attractions including clay pigeon shooting and a farm shop.

Go to the top of the class

Parents will be pleased to find a good selection of schools to suit children of all ages. Echline, Queensferry and St Margaret's RC Primary Schools are all close by, while for older students, Queensferry Community High School is just a 5 minute drive. For further and higher education, Edinburgh, Heriot-Watt and Napier Universities are all within easy reach.

*Owning a home in a school's catchment does not guarantee a place at the school. Please consult the local authority for more details.

Community is at the heart of it all

Queensferry's close-knit community holds regular events throughout the year, including the Ferry Fair in August, where a week of fun ends with the crowning of the Ferry Fair Queen. Parades through the street, live bands, a Boundary and Wheelbarrow race plus plentiful entertainment for adults and children, makes this event one of the most looked-forward to weekends for the community.

The year normally starts with the Loony Dook event, a fundraiser where locals wear fancy dress and brave the waters of the River Forth for a New Year's Day swim.

Where to go

Eating and drinking – You’ll find a place to eat or drink for every occasion in Queensferry. Whether it’s a cake and cuppa at Manna House Bakery or The Little Bakery, some hearty pub grub at Thirty Knots or The Hawes Inn, or a beautifully prepared meal at Scotts, the Orocco Pier Hotel or The Boat House – you won’t have far to go.

A trip to the shops – There is a range of independent shops in town including Harbour Lane Studio, which sells gifts, crafts and home furnishings and comes highly recommended. Dunfermline’s Kingsgate Shopping Centre also has an A to Z of high street names, while Edinburgh’s rich and eclectic shopping scene needs no introduction.

Family excursions – For breath-taking views of the River Forth, the coastline and nearby islands, the Shore Walk is 4.5 miles long and will take you from South Queensferry to Cramond Beach.

Getting around

Nestled close to the A904 trunk road and just minutes from the M90 and M9 motorways, as well as within easy reach of Dalmeny Train Station, travel and transport will always be straightforward at Rosebery Wynd.

By foot: There is lots of exploring to be done, with the town centre within easy walking distance. The bridges and local coastline also offer plenty of scope for scenic walks.

By car: The nearby A9000 will lead you to the M90 where you can head east for Edinburgh and west for Glasgow – which is around 40 miles away. The M9, meanwhile, will take you to the historic city of Stirling in just over half an hour.

By train: Dalmeny Train station is just a 5 minute drive, or 25 minute walk from Rosebery Wynd and will take you directly into Edinburgh in around 20 minutes.

By bus: A regular bus service is in operation nearby, running every 20 minutes and with a journey time into Edinburgh of around 25 minutes.

What our customers say

Photography from a previous Cala development

“ We weren't looking to buy a new house originally but once we booked the appointment and saw it, we knew immediately we wanted it.

We fell in love with the style of the house right away as it ticked all our boxes.

I have my own office where I can work from home and the kids have their own bedrooms which are all the same size so there were no arguments about who gets which room. **”

Sustainability the Cala way

Cala has a rich heritage originally dating back to 1875. We started building homes in the 1970s and, for over 50 years, have been creating high quality, sustainable new homes and communities. However it is not just what we do, but the way we do it that matters to Cala.

Thinking sustainably is at the heart of everything we do; from identifying the right sites, through creating a safe, healthy and fulfilling working environment, to taking a sensitive approach to development and delivering communities that meet local requirements.

As part of our sustainability journey we are aiming to reduce our paper usage by 90% across the company, including the customer journey, which is why we are aiming for online only brochures at our developments.
