THE GREAT ESCAPE

With plans to become a thriving urban village, Craibstone Estate South enjoys an idyllic woodland setting offering a breath-taking away-from-it-all experience within just a few miles of Aberdeen city centre.

Families will love the sense of safety and tranquillity that can be found when wandering the plentiful scenic walks and tree-lined trails. With the nearby Green Burn providing an attractive habitat for local wildlife, getting back to nature has never felt so easy.

For those who enjoy a leisurely stroll, breath-taking scenery and convivial conversation as part of their fitness regime, Craibstone Golf Club is just 5 minutes' drive from Craibstone Estate.

TECA (The Event Complex in Aberdeen) is located nearby, and offers a world-class exhibition, conference and hotel facility. Adjacent to Aberdeen International Airport and including woodland walks, walled garden and arboretum, the site is also home to the Scottish Rural University College (SRUC) Aberdeen Campus.

LIVE THE DREAM JUST MINUTES FROM THE CITY

Linked to The Four Hills Country Walk, stretching your legs has never held more appeal. The area offers plenty of routes to suit walkers of all levels. Efforts will be rewarded by unforgettable views across Aberdeen. With wide, flatter tracks, The Seven Bridges Trail, passing the ruins of Knock Castle and the wrought iron Polhollick Bridge, appeals to walkers and mountain-bikers alike.

From M&S Foodhall, Tesco Express and Lidl, to one-off restaurants and welcoming pubs, plenty of local amenities can be found in the nearby suburbs.

For families with children, Brimmond School, catering for both nursery and primary stages, lies less than 2 miles from home. Secondary stage pupils can attend the nearby Bucksburn Academy.
